

2008 Red Côte

WineSooth.com: June 12, 2009

Pink and Sweet: It was more complex as a solo sipper and stood up better to the salad (and more specifically, the vinaigrette). It seemed to enhance some of the textural and aromatic aspects of the Gorgonzola.

Red Red Rosé: This was a great Rosé. Easily my favorite I've had in recent memory. I loved everything about it, from the color, to the nose, to the flavors.

Sumptuous Thanksgiving Wines - In the Red Wine Zone: This wine is made from Cabernet Sauvignon grapes, and has rich, flavorful notes; yet, it's a delicate wine.
